Fake accident trap

Senior citizen targeted again and again...

▶ Miscreant robs once, attempts to rob again after a week on Vishwamanava Double Road

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (BCT)- Criminals on two-wheelers targeting senior citizens driving four-wheelers to extort money by falsely accusing them of causing accidents are once again active after a lull.

Recently, a senior citizen fell victim to extortion under the guise of a fabricated accident, being coerced into paying Rs. 4,500 for the treatment of the supposed accident victim. A mere week later, another attempt was made to rob the same person at the same location where the initial incident occurred.

While the monetary loss may seem insignificant, the psychological trauma endured by the 80-year-old has left him deeply concerned about the welfare of senior citizens in Mysuru who lead independent lives alongside their spouses. Out of fear and repercussions, the senior citizen has refrained from filing a Police complaint.

The senior citizen (name withheld on request) was travelling to his office in Kuvempunagar from V.V. Mohalla via Manasagangothri Open Air Theatre Road. As he was entering the Vishwamanava Double Road, at the busy junction, a young man on a scooter collided with his car from behind.

Amulya, staff and students were present.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

As consciousness or conscious-beings, we humans are inseparably both the means and the ends; we are simultaneously nothing and eternal. But something is stopping us from manifesting that truth. The problem with us human beings is that we hardly ever see the truth which we ourselves are... But, we instead stay soiled in beliefs or cocooned in our dreams or reveries...

Among us all, someone's world view extends to the limits of observable or cognisable universe while someone else's may be little more than that. But, when seen from the eternity, are not all of these minuscule views only? Yet, we stay so overwhelmed by our respective 'visions' that we want the whole world to 'see' and realise these dreams/visions considering and acknowledging these as their own dreams. Huge egos are created in this process of competing world-views and, many keep suffering due to that...

Imagine if, as earthlings, all of us lived with the consciousness of one and the same identity: that of being human, shaped by the same knowledge. Then, wouldn't we find ourselves 'nothing' and 'eternal' both at the same moment? Just contemplate rationally and logically, through the lens of wisdom, any moment within this entire duration that is available to you as a human being. Through this, you will see the truth of your existence - simultaneously nothingness and eternity. Such is the nature of innocence, evenness and justice inherent within all of us as consciousness/awareness/ awakening. We are nothing as, what or who we all consider ourselves individually as - "I" that is perishable. And, we all know this individually, don't we? Does anyone of us have any doubt about (our) being perishable?

And, we are eternal as well. As that is the most apt definition of word 'are' or 'is'. When seen in pure mind intuitively; through rational thinking; in impression-free intelligence/reasoning; or experienced in meditative state/ wisdom/ transcendence. Now, when this wisdom is comprehensible to all the sentient beings same way then what prevents us from placing this in school syllabi across the globe? If children imbibe this from the early age as the primary sentiment all across the global humanity that at the zenith of reasoning they as consciousness are essentially immortal beings, wouldn't it help them stay focussed and disciplined and truthful? Question you should ask is then who/what is stopping us in manifesting the truth?

Scientists create diamond out of red peonies

Beijing: In what has been described as a world first, Chinese scientists have created a 3-carat diamond exclusively out of carbon elements derived from red peonies.

The world's first diamond made from peony-derived carbon elements was unveiled today in Luoyang, China's Henan Province. It was donated to the Luoyang National Peony Garden by Luoyang Time Promise Co., a company that specialises in artificial diamonds. At the end of last month, the city's peony garden agreed to supply the diamond company with the peonies necessary to create the unique diamond, including a nearly 50-year-old peony.

"The diamond is valued at 300,000 yuan. It is cultivated from peonies using our biogenic carbon extraction technology, subjected to high temperature and pressure, and then cultivated," said Wang Jing, CEO of Luoyang Time Promise Co.

Ballerinas stand on their toes to break record

New York: New York's famous Plaza Hotel hosted a Guinness World Record-breaking event featuring 353 ballerinas en pointe at the same time.

The nonprofit Youth America Grand Prix, which organizes competitions for young dancers, celebrated its 25th anniversary by gathering the white tutu-clad ballerinas at the hotel and having them all go en pointe — the ballet term for dancing on the toes — for a full minute.

The attempt took the record for most ballet dancers en pointe simultaneously from a 2019 event that featured 309 dancers, including talk show host Kelly Ripa.

MCC and MUDA: Why this discrimination?

Sir,

The MUDA Employees Layout, located adjacent to Rathnamanikya Cycling Institute and Shiva Temple on Dattagalli Ring Road, comprises three Cross Roads. Despite LED streetlights being installed on every pole in the 2nd and 3rd Cross by MCC, not a single LED streetlight has been provided for 1st Cross.

Additionally, while asphalt work has been completed for one Cross Road, the other two have remained untouched since the Layout's formation almost two decades ago.

Residents have had to purchase control switches for streetlights at their own expense and plead with officials to have them installed. According to MUDA officials, no work will be undertaken in the Layout as it was handed over to MCC in 2019, and residents have been paying taxes to MCC since then.

The absence of streetlights poses significant safety risks for seniors, women and children.

Despite numerous appeals to elected representatives over the years, residents have faced discrimination and received no resolution to their concerns.

'Let's strengthen PM Modi's hands to build stronger India'

BJP candidate Yaduveer welcomed with arati, shower of flower petals at Ashokapuram; Sunnadakeri residents wash his feet in devotion

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (PM&BS)- Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, BJP candidate for Lok Sabha elections from Mysuru-Kodagu Constituency, appealed voters to support him in the elections on Apr. 26 to strengthen the hands of Prime Minister Narendra Modi towards building a stronger India.

He was addressing the gathering during a public meeting organised on 9th Cross, Ramanuja Road in city on Thursday.

Yaduveer said: "I am the nominee of BJP and JD(S) alliance and in the fray with the blessings of PM Modi, who has made several contributions to the country. Prior to Modi's tenure in office in 2014, the country's economy was in jeopardy, but now in the year 2024 it has scaled up to become fifth largest economy. This achievement was possible due to the pro-development style of functioning of Modi. Metro rail connectivity that was earlier provided in seven cities has now been extended to 22 cities."

While 9,000 km long National Highways were built in 65 years, it has now touched 1.5 lakh km distance now, he added.

Road show

Earlier in the day, Yaduveer took out a road show in Ashokapuram and Sunnadakeri where people greeted him with a rousing reception. At Ashokapuram, Yaduveer was welcomed with a shower of flower petals, the residents of Sunnadakeri washed his feet as a mark of devotion towards the erstwhile royal family.

Yaduveer, who offered his floral tributes to the statue of Architect of the Constitution Dr. B.R. Ambedkar at the park named after Ambedkar in Ashokapuram, later went around the locality in an open vehicle. However, upon noticing the women waiting to offer him a traditional welcome with arati, he chose to alight and walk through every streets of the locality on a padayatra. The women who greeted Yaduveer with arati, later applied tilak on his forehead wishing victory in the elections, besides showering flower petals. The aghoris (Sadhu), who are believed to be the worshippers of Lord Shiva, also met Yaduveer and blessed him.

Yaduveer recalled the emotional connect between the erstwhile royal family and Ashokapuram. When the wooden Palace caught fire, the residents of Ashokapuram had joined hands in dousing the fire, he said.

The mood at Ashokapuram was a repeat of overwhelming reception offered to Yaduveer's father late Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, when he had also contested Lok Sabha polls several decades ago.

Yaduveer visited Sri Raghavendraswamy Mutt near Ballal Circle and took out a road show in Lakshmipuram. MLA T.S. Srivatsa, former Mayor Shivakumar, former Karnataka Exhibition Authority (KEA) Chairman Hemanth Kumar Gowda and others accompanied Yaduveer.

25,000 housing units built in Mysuru

As many as 25,000 houses have been built under Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana in Mysuru district alone, with four crore housing units built across the nation. Majority of beneficiaries of this housing scheme are those belonging to backward classes. That apart, 2.5 lakh tap water connections have been provided to houses under Jal Jeevan Mission. Over 100 Jan Aushad Kendras are opened in Mysuru with medicines available at affordable rates. All these initiatives hold mirror to overall development works of the PM.

Fans climb Chamundi Hill steps to pray for D.K. Suresh's victory

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (MTY&VNS)- More than 300 members of 'DK Brothers Abhimani Balaga,' wearing T-shirts with the candidate's photo and name printed on it, visited Sri Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill and offered special pujas praying for the victory of Congress candidate from Bangalore Rural Lok Sabha Constituency, D.K. Suresh, on Thursday.

The members, who arrived atop the hill climbing over 1,000 steps, not only prayed for the victory of Suresh but for all 28 Congress candidates in the State.

Speaking to media persons, the members said that the guarantee schemes announced by the State Government had not only benefited the middle class and the poor but had also helped them live a respectable life.

People chanting 'Modi Zindabad' lack paternal heritage: Professor

Prof. Mahesh Chandra Guru makes derogatory remarks; fellow activists walk away from press conference

Prof. Mahesh Chandra Guru (third from right), former University of Mysore Professor, seen with others during the press conference in Mandya yesterday.

Mandya, Apr. 20 (BCT)- Political discourse reached a new nadir yesterday when former University of Mysore Professor, Prof. Mahesh Chandra Guru, made a disparaging comment suggesting that individuals chanting 'Modi Zindabad' lacked paternal heritage.

The derogatory remark was delivered during a press conference in Mandya, attended by writers and personalities such as M. Ramakrishna, Prof. B. Jayaprakashgowda, writer Mayigowda, Prof. Nagaraju and Dr. Pradeep Kumar.

Prof. Guru asserted the importance of slogans like 'Karnataka Zindabad' and 'Bharat Zindabad' and said, "People chanting 'Modi Zindabad' are not born to their fathers." This remark drew an immediate rebuke from the people present.

Prof. Jayaprakashgowda and Mayigowda, in protest against the offensive language, opted to leave the press conference, marking their dissent in front of the assembled media.

This incident adds to Prof. Mahesh Chandra Guru's history of controversy, having previously made derogatory remarks against the Prime Minister and the BJP. He was also arrested for similar offensive and provocative comments directed towards Lord Ram and Hinduism.

Others present give clarification

In a press release, Prof. Jayaprakashgowda and Mayigowda clarified their stance on the events that unfolded during the press conference.

They expressed their initial intention to use the platform to highlight threats to the Constitution but were dismayed by Prof. Mahesh Chandra Guru's disrespectful comments directed at the Prime Minister. "Prof. Guru's behaviour was unacceptable, especially given his position as an academician, and his remarks are a breach of the decorum expected from someone in his position and learning. We are committed to upholding principles of respect and integrity in public discourse," they said.

Disappointed by Prof. Guru's conduct, they conveyed their regret for having shared the stage with him and condemned his actions unequivocally.

BJP files complaint

Following Prof. Mahesh Chandra Guru's controversial remarks, BJP activists from Mandya swiftly took action by filing a complaint with Mandya SP N. Yathish, urging appropriate action against the Professor.

C.T. Manjunath, a spokesperson for the Mandya BJP, accused individuals like Prof. Guru of propagating misinformation aimed at tarnishing the BJP's image, particularly by spreading fears that the party would tamper with the Constitution if re-elected. Manjunath highlighted the irony of such accusations, noting that historical revisions to the Constitution were predominantly made during Congress administrations.

He further criticised Prof. Guru, likening his behaviour to that of a Congress agent, and said that his actions disregarded the legacy of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the principal architect of the Indian Constitution.

Trishikha Wadiyar launches
women empowerment awareness initiative

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (RK&DM)- Trishikha Kumari Wadiyar, wife of titular head of erstwhile Mysuru Royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, who is also the Mysuru-Kodagu LS seat BJP candidate, stressed on the need for creating a conducive atmosphere for women empowerment and entrepreneurship.

She was speaking at the first-ever event of her women's empowerment and entrepreneurship awareness initiative organised at Srirama Seva Ursu Mandali located near Veterinary Hospital behind Sharada Vilas College of Pharmacy in Krishnamurthypuram here this morning.

Emphasising the vital importance of spreading awareness on women's empowerment, Trishikha said: "As we host the inaugural event of the women's awareness initiative, I am filled with hope and optimism. It is crucial that we empower women with the knowledge to access welfare schemes and Government initiatives effectively. Through this initiative, our goal is to initiate meaningful conversations and inspire action towards creating a more inclusive and supportive environment for women".

Venkatesh Thulasiraman, Senior Scientist, CSIR-NIST, said: "As we face the complexities of the modern world, Science and Technology play a key role in women empowerment. Women entrepreneurs, apart from aiming at enhancing their productivity and competitiveness, should also focus on sustainable development of communities."

Abhishek, Consultant for SMEs and resource person for Government schemes, in his address, said that empowerment of women entrepreneurs does not merely mean expansion of trade and business. It is also important that women gain a deeper understanding of how to navigate the system with ease and confidence, thus empowering them to seize the benefits and all the opportunities that await them, he added.

The day-long event featured talks by expert speakers who shared valuable insights on various Government welfare schemes and initiatives.

Chaya Nanjappa, social entrepreneur working on rural and tribal women empowerment (Mysuru and Kodagu region), Shubha Puttaswamy, Technical Officer, Farm Sector (4 districts) and others were present.

Anti-incumbency wave across country, claims CM

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (BLU&DM)- Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has claimed that there's a strong undercurrent of anti-incumbency against the ruling Government at the Centre across the country. He dismissed the BJP's claims of a Modi wave, asserting instead that the Opposition I.N.D.I.A. Bloc will secure a majority in the Lok Sabha polls.

Addressing press persons at his residence in Ramakrishnanagar this morning, Siddaramaiah criticised the Modi Government for allegedly favouring corporates and capitalists while neglecting the poor.

Responding to the Congress party's recent newspaper advertisements mocking the BJP-led Centre's governance by depicting 'Chombu' (empty vessel), the CM defended the advertisement. He cited the Modi Government's alleged failure to release drought relief funds, devolve taxes, and provide other grants promised to the state. He highlighted the government's failure to fulfil promises such as crediting Rs. 15 lakh to every citizen's account, among others.

NEHA MURDER CASE

Regarding the Neha Hiremath murder case in Hubballi, which has sparked significant controversy, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah expressed strong condemnation for the crime. He assured that the perpetrator has been promptly arrested, emphasising that the law will take its due course. Siddaramaiah affirmed that his Government views the incident with utmost seriousness.

Siddaramaiah

He flayed the opposition BJP-JD(S) coalition for politicising the issue and exploiting the tragedy for political mileage. Siddaramaiah maintained that the State's law and order situation is superior compared to other states.

Later, Siddaramaiah left for K.R. Nagar by helicopter, where he was scheduled to address a campaign rally for Mandya Congress candidate Star Chandru.

'If Siddaramaiah cannot protect a Congress Corporator's family, how can he save the State?'

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (BLU &VNS)- Former Chief Minister and NDA candidate from Mandya H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) has criticised the Siddaramaiah-led Congress Government in Karnataka, alleging a lack of control over the State's law and order situation.

Addressing media after seeking the blessings of Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji at Suttur Mutt in the city this morning, Kumaraswamy referenced the recent tragic murder of Neha Hiremath in Hubballi.

He questioned the Congress Government and Siddaramaiah, highlighting their failure to protect the family of a Corporator from their own party. Kumaraswamy raised concerns about the CM's and Government's ability to ensure the safety of the State's citizens given these circumstances.

"The CM, without having complete details, has stated certain damaging things about Hiremath's family to media. He should not have spoken on the matter without understanding its sensitivity. The State Govt's appeasement of a particular community has contributed to such incidents," HDK remarked.

He highlighted incidents such as the murder of four members of the same family in Gadag, the attack on a person who composed a song on PM Modi in Mysuru, and untoward incidents in Kodagu, attributing them to the protection of individuals who had voiced pro-Pakistan slogans at Vidhana Soudha.

Kumaraswamy

Reacting to the Congress's protest in Bengaluru, where they were seen holding empty tumblers ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit, former CM Kumaraswamy derided the demonstration, suggesting that it symbolised the party's act of begging for alms after emptying the State's treasury.

Addressing questions regarding MP Sumalatha Ambarish's absence from campaigning in Mandya, Kumaraswamy mentioned that Sumalatha, previously associated with the BJP, would be conducting her campaign at locations designated by the party's high command. He added that she might also visit Mandya as there are still four days left for public campaigning.

Mysuru becomes political headquarters for bigwigs

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (BLU&VNS)- As the April 26 voting day nears, all three major political parties — BJP, JD(S) and Congress — are sparing no effort to ensure the victory of their respective candidates from Mysuru-Kodagu, Mandya and Chamarajanagar Lok Sabha Constituencies, which they consider prestigious.

Leaders of these parties are stationed in Mysuru, conducting brainstorming sessions.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has been visiting Mysuru frequently to address public rallies in Mysuru-Kodagu, Mandya, and Chamarajanagar. He has been holding numerous meetings with his confidants, formulating strategies for the victory of Congress candidates.

CM Siddaramaiah and Dy. CM Shivakumar are scheduled to travel to K.R. Nagar, K.R. Pet, and Nagamangala to address public rallies. They are devising strategies to defeat former CM Kumaraswamy from Mandya.

Meanwhile, State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra and former CM Kumaraswamy, who have been campaigning for NDA candidates, will be in Mysuru to conduct a series of meetings with party workers.

In response to CM Siddaramaiah and Dy.CM Shivakumar's strategies to defeat Kumaraswamy in Mandya, the former CM is also devising counter-strategies to challenge the Congress.

B.Y. Vijayendra is scheduled to arrive in Mysuru this evening via a special flight after completing a series of election campaigns in Mangaluru. Tomorrow, he will participate in events to seek support for Yaduveer and also visit Chamarajanagar, Kodagu and Mandya.

Mandya MP Sumalatha inaugurates Nari Shakti Meet in city

Feeling the impact, the elderly person brought his car to a stop and released the door lock to get out. Immediately, the youth forcefully opened the back door of the car while the elderly person was getting ready to see what hit his car.

Money for medical treatment

Soon, the youth began shouting at him, alleging that his brother had been struck and injured by the elderly person's car, and was now lying injured on the road. He pointed towards the road the elderly person had just traversed.

The young man accused the elderly person of reckless driving and demanded compensation for his brother's medical treatment. He insisted on Rs. 50,000 to cover the medical expenses incurred due to his brother's injuries.

Attempting to defend himself, the senior citizen refuted the accusation of reckless driving. However, the youth persisted in demanding compensation for his brother's hospital admission, adopting an intimidating tone.

Feeling extremely shocked and nervous due to the sudden accusation and persistent demand for money, the elderly person reluctantly agreed to pay Rs. 4,500, as he did not have a larger sum on hand.

Second incident after a week

A week following the traumatic incident, there was another incident of a miscreant trying to extort money from the same senior citizen at the same location where he had previously demanded money.

Once again, the youth stopped the elderly person's car by deliberately colliding his scooter against it. Employing the same method, he forcefully opened the car door and positioned himself in the backseat, demanding money.

Though uncertain whether the perpetrator was the same individual who had committed the crime previously at the same spot, the elderly person confronted the miscreant. He questioned the youth, asking if he was the same person who had extorted Rs. 4,500 from him in a similar incident the week earlier.

Same alibi of accident

Denying any involvement in such activities, the youth recounted the same accident scenario, claiming that his brother had been injured due to the elderly person's car. Once again, the youth demanded money.

However, having learned from the previous incident, the elderly person summoned the courage to confront the youth and suggested heading to the Police Station to resolve the matter.

He made it clear that any payment would only be made at the Police Station if there was indeed an injured person involved. Taking out his mobile phone, the elderly man informed the miscreant that he would be contacting the Police.

Aggressive tone

Infuriated by this response, the miscreant advanced menacingly and threatened to snatch the elderly person's mobile phone if he dared to call the Police. Despite feeling scared and apprehensive due to the aggressiveness and intimidating demeanour of the miscreant, the elderly person stood his ground and insisted on going to the Police Station. He firmly asserted his belief that the perpetrator was indeed the same individual who had robbed him using the same method the previous week.

Upon hearing this, the miscreant exited the elderly person's car and hurled verbal abuse before departing from the scene.

BJP to host mega convention of micro communities tomorrow

Raghu Kautilya

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (MTY&VNS)- The BJP, which has been eyeing to seek the support of members belonging to working class communities in both Mysuru-Kodagu and Chamarajanagar Lok Sabha Constituencies, has organised a mega convention at Dasara Exhibition Grounds in city tomorrow (Apr. 21).

Addressing media persons at BJP Headquarters here this morning, State BJP OBC Morcha President Raghu Kautilya said that the convention would be inaugurated by State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra at 11 am in the presence of NDA candidates Yaduveer Wadiyar (Mysuru-Kodagu LS Seat) and S. Balraj (Chamarajanagar (SC) seat) and prominent party leaders of Mysuru, Kodagu and Chamarajanagar districts with the members of Vishwakarma, Ganiga, Nekara, Madivala and other micro communities taking part.

"The convention has been organised to apprise the community members about them being misguided by the Congress State Government and to seek their support for NDA candidates of both Mysuru-Kodagu and Chamarajanagar (SC) LS seats," he said and added that communities had about 75,000 votes combining both the Constituencies.

Claiming that the guarantee schemes announced by the Congress State Government were temporary in nature, Raghu Kautilya said that the State Government had failed to announce permanent programmes for the welfare of these communities. "The then BJP Government, headed by B.S. Yediyurappa, had announced Rs. 500 crore funds for Boards and Corporations belonging to these micro communities while the present State Government has only released Rs. 150 crore," he added.

Referring to Neha murder in Hubballi and other incidents, he said that Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot would be requested to recommend for President's Rule in the State as the present State Government had no control over the Law and Order situation.

Babu Pattar of Vishwakarma community, Chennakeshava of Ganiga community, Cheluvaraju of Nekara community, Rashmi and Rangappachar were present.

Efforts underway to involve sexual minorities in democratic process

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (GA&TRR)- Both the Central and State Governments have implemented numerous programmes aimed at integrating sexual minorities into mainstream society.

However, these initiatives face significant legal and technical obstacles, hindering the accessibility of benefits provided under these initiatives. Moreover, societal discrimination and inherent feelings of inferiority prevent many sexual minorities from leading fulfilling lives akin to other citizens.

The living conditions of many sexual minorities are dire, with some resorting to begging for survival. Despite the presence of sexual minorities in prominent positions such as Judges, Advocates, IAS Officers and Teachers, they still encounter discrimination, including challenges in exercising their voting rights.

Picture for representation only.

Sexual minorities are individuals who, after being born male or female, develop a sexual identity different from their birth gender. Hormonal changes or elective gender transitions contribute to this transformation. The societal ridicule they face often obstructs their ability to live authentically.

In the 2024 Lok Sabha elections, there are 20,92,222 registered voters in Mysuru, including 184 sexual minorities. However, in previous elections, the turnout among sexual minorities has been notably low, despite an increasing number of registrations.

In the 2019 Lok Sabha elections, out of 20,86,413 voters, 14,68,695 exercised their franchise. However, despite 153 transgender individuals registering their names, only 19 of them cast their votes.

Similarly, in the 2023 Assembly elections, out of 26,55,984 registered voters, 19,95,152 voted. Yet, among the 226 registered transgender individuals, only 49 participated in the voting process.

Despite an increase in the number of registered transgender voters before each election, there has been no corresponding rise in the number of votes cast by transgender individuals.

Pranati Prakash, a leader of sexual minorities, shared her experience of voting for the first time in the 2023 Assembly elections. Due to discrepancies in her identification documents, she was unable to vote until her gender identity was officially recognised.

"There are over 800 sexual minorities in Mysuru district. However, due to the mention of male or female gender in their various documents, including school records, obtaining Aadhaar Cards has become challenging for them. Nevertheless, they have the opportunity to register their names in the voters' list if the Deputy Commissioner can issue a certificate identifying them as transgender," Pranati said.

Currently, many sexual minority individuals are in the process of obtaining this certificate, and it is anticipated that more of them will participate in the upcoming Lok Sabha elections, she added, urging registered sexual minority individuals to exercise their voting rights without fail.

Efforts are underway to address these challenges. In Mysuru district, steps are being taken to facilitate the registration of sexual minorities in the voters' list by providing certificates identifying their sexual minority status.

Dr. K.V. Rajendra, the Deputy Commissioner, confirms that such certificates can be obtained by disclosing biological changes, as per Court directives.

Moving forward, it is crucial to continue advocating for the rights and inclusion of sexual minorities, ensuring they can fully participate in democratic processes without discrimination or impediments.

Up voting awareness among women: Judge Prabhavati M. Hiremath

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (RK&BS)- Prabhavati M. Hiremath, Principal District and Sessions Court Judge, has given a call to increase the level of awareness among women about voting.

Judge Prabhavati was addressing the gathering after inaugurating an awareness programme on voting and International Women's Day organised by District-level Systematic Voters Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) Committee and District Administration at Zilla Panchayat in the city on Thursday.

Judge Prabhavati underlined that "Ours is a democratic country and it is the responsibility of all to exercise their franchise, which is also a duty enshrined in the Constitution."

"There is a law to protect girl child in the womb. The male and female are like two faces of the coin in the world, without giving any room for discrimination," she added.

The hands that move the cradle will also move the country. Our vote is our right and every woman should be a part of this festival of elections and fulfil their duties, said Judge Prabhavati.

Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra said, "Like men, even women can be seen discharging their responsibilities in all the fields in the present days. Now, women are a step ahead of men and those who run the family can also lead the country. Hence every woman should vote without fail, as they possess more energy which should be made use of judiciously. The parents should bring up their children without differentiating on the basis of their gender."

Women outnumber men in voter roll in the district and women should ensure cent percent voting percentage this year too. Hence they should be aware and take part in voting morally and also inspire those in their surroundings to endorse them, said Dr. Rajendra.

ZP Chief Executive Officer (CEO) K.M. Gayathri said: "Women have been handling their duties without relying on anybody in every field. But they have fallen back in voting, triggering the need to create awareness about the importance of voting."

Superintendent of Police (SP) Seema Latkar said: "Every woman is possessed with a force who should face the problem without any fear. We ourselves should find solutions to personal issues. We have a chance to elect better candidate and everybody should vote compulsorily."

Prizes were distributed to the winners of various competitions like essay writing, quiz, reels and drawing organised by District SVEEP Committee and Akashvani to create awareness on voting.

City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh, Conservator of Forests (CF) Dr. Malathi Priya, Indian Information Service (IIS) Officer Shruthi, Election Ambassador Tanishka Murthy and women officers from various departments were present.

Former Congress Minister Rani Satish accuses HDK of insulting women

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (MTY&DM)- Former Congress Minister Rani Satish has accused Mandya Lok Sabha Constituency BJP-JD(S) coalition candidate and former Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) of making insulting remarks against women in respect of the Congress' poll guarantees.

Addressing a press meet at Congress Bhavan near the City Railway Station here yesterday, Rani Satish alleged that Kumaraswamy's remark that 'women have gone astray' is condemnable.

Maintaining that the implementation of pre-poll guarantees had hugely benefitted the poor and the exploited women, she said it is really astonishing to note that HDK, being a former CM had made such a humiliating remark against women.

Charging PM Modi of spreading falsehood that the Congress had done nothing in its 60 years of rule, the former Minister asserted that it was the Congress which led the country in the right path after getting independence from the Britishers.

Stressing on the need for every citizen to cast vote, she said that the voters should make a wise choice by electing Congress candidate M. Lakshmana, who has been fighting for public cause since decades.

City Congress President R. Murthy, former Mayors Pushpalatha Chikkanna and Modamani, Congress leaders Pushpavalli, Latha Mohan, Sharada Sampath, Chandrakala, Krishnakumari and others were present.

Later, Rani Satish undertook a poll campaign in several parts of Devaraja Mohalla and sought votes for Lakshmana.

Former Mayor B.K. Prakash and other leaders were present.

Man in city attacked for making song lauding PM Modi

Police scan CCTV footage to identify accused; form six teams to arrest assaulters

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (RK,MK& BCT)- In a shocking turn of events, a man was lured into a room and physically assaulted by a group of individuals for creating a song lauding Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

The incident occurred yesterday afternoon at the Government Guest House in Nazarbad.

The victim, identified as 40-year-old Lakshminarayana, also known as Rohit Raman, is a YouTuber hailing from Hallikerehundi village near Mellahalli in Mandya district.

Assault victim Lakshminarayana speaking to media.

Lakshminarayana, in his written complaint to the Police, has said, "I was near the Government Guest House sharing my channel link and requesting people to subscribe to my channel when a guy came towards me. I asked him to watch the song and subscribe my channel."

"He watched it and said it was nice. He then said he would take me inside to meet his friends so that this could be shared with them. As soon as I entered the room, a guy closed my mouth and held my hands from behind. He started abusing me for making this song on PM Modi," Lakshminarayana added. He also claimed that the men abused him, urinated on him and asked him to chant 'Pakistan Zindabad.'

The Police took him for medical attention following the attack. The Police said that they were having a look at the CCTV footage at the Guest House and investigating the matter further.

Based on the formal complaint lodged by Lakshminarayana, Nazarbad Police have filed charges under several sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), including wrongful restraint, causing hurt, insult, promoting enmity on religious grounds, criminal intimidation and others.

MLA condemns incident

The lone BJP MLA from Mysuru's Krishnaraja Constituency, S. Srivatsa, condemned the incident and said that he has spoken to the DCP, seeking action against the culprits. He also warned of protests if the Police took the issue lightly and failed to arrest the accused persons.

The BJP characterised the attackers as 'fanatical goons' and accused the Congress of fostering an environment conducive to criminal activities, asserting that Karnataka has regrettably devolved into a 'Crime State' under its governance.

Meanwhile, the City Police have formed six special teams to nab the culprits. The team is being led by DCPs M. Muthuraj and S. Jahnavi.

Lecturer commits suicide by setting himself ablaze

Nanjangud, Apr. 20- A 46-year-old college lecturer ended life by setting himself ablaze near Hosahalli gate in the outskirts of Nanjangud town on Friday.

Madappa

Madappa, who was working as a lecturer at Chamarajanagar Government PU College and a resident of V.A. Extension in Nanjangud town, is the deceased.

Madappa's wife Poornima too is a lecturer at JSS College in the town and the couple have a 16-year-old daughter.

Madappa, who was said to be under depression for the past couple of months, reportedly ended his life by setting himself ablaze after pouring petrol on him.

Based on a complaint lodged by his wife, the Nanjangud Rural Police have registered a case.

Unidentified body found

Pandavapura, Apr. 20- Pandavapura Police have found a body of an unidentified man near Pandavapura Railway Station.

The deceased is wearing a light green colour shorts and a red and blue coloured full sleeves white chequered shirt.

The kith and kin of the deceased, if any, may contact Pandavapura Police Station on Ph: 08236-255132, according to a press release.

Violent altercation leaves Police vehicle damaged

Fight over trivial reasons; stones pelted at emergency response vehicle too; 14 arrested

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (SBD&BCT)- A heated altercation between two groups in the city took a violent turn on Thursday night, resulting in damage to a Police vehicle and an emergency services response vehicle. The incident occurred in the B.M. Sri Nagar area of Ambedkar Colony near a church at around 10.30 pm.

According to reports, tensions flared between two families, led by John Peter's son and Hussain's son, over trivial matters. The dispute quickly escalated, involving neighbouring residents in a confrontation.

When the Police intervened to defuse the situation, they encountered resistance. Metagalli Police promptly responded to the scene to restore order. Fourteen individuals involved in the altercation have been arrested and taken into custody for further investigation.

In the aftermath of the incident, as the families of those involved, along with Hussain, were being escorted to the Police Station, a group of people pelted stones at the Police vehicle and an emergency services response vehicle, causing damage to both vehicles.

Authorities are conducting thorough inquiries into the incident, and discussions are underway to address the underlying issues that led to the confrontation. Police Inspector Shantharam of the Metagalli Police Station assured the public that the matter is being dealt with seriously and urged for calm in the community.

Later, DCP (Law and Order) M. Muthuraj and Vijayanagar ACP Gajendra Prasad visited the site to assess the situation and take necessary action.

134th Sri Ramothsava Sangeethothsava-2024

Deep understanding of music and sahitya

Akkarai Sisters — Vidu. Subhalakshmi and Vidu. Sornalatha — presenting Classical Music concert at Smt. Alammana Choultry, Kunchitigara Sangha, Srirampet, Mysuru, on Apr. 18.

On the second day of the music series at Smt. Alammana Choultry in Srirampet, Akkarai Sisters — Vidu. Subhalakshmi and Vidu. Sornalatha — gave a vocal concert with Vid. Gokul on violin, Vid. Delhi Sairam on mridanga and Vid. Krishna on ghata. The concert was marked for maturity with their vast concert experience, filled with fine nuances and creative artistry.

While it is rare and hard to excel in two different fields of music, it is amazing how their violin playing does not affect the style of singing of these wonder sisters. Whatsmore, the sisters have worked on the sahitya part of each composition, which is not very common in instrumentalists. It was gratifying to see them sing confidently with no piece of paper for reference.

The concert opened with Tyagaraja's pancharatna 'Dudukugala nanne dora' in Gowla. Another composition of Tyagaraja 'Makelara' in Ravichandrika set to Adi tala came with a brisk speed and the swaras in the melkalam were fluent and effortless but with clarity. Sornalatha then presented Kamavardhini for elaboration. The alapana was captivating and won appreciation even from the senior mridangist on the dais. Tyagaraja's 'ApparAma Bhakti ento' was presented with precision and the neraval for elaboration was chosen at 'TripaThalanu deerchi'. Sornalatha stopped here to explain the importance of the line chosen for neraval. She explained how the mind is not constant but how RAmabhakthi puts an end to the roaming mind. Both the neraval and the kalpana swaras were lively.

'MAmava pattAbhirAma' in Manirangu by Deekshitar throws a magical spell on the listener whenever heard. Sornalatha explained the meaning of the entire charana before singing the part which not only helped the listeners listen to the composition carefully understanding the meaning of the lines but also picturise RAma seated majestically in the throne served by his brothers, Hanuman, Sugreeva, Vibheeshana and others. 'Seethamma MAyamma' in Vasanta was a good contrast after the previous composition and the swarakalpana was energetic.

Subhalakshmi then took up Shankarabharana for detailed elaboration. The ragalapana was satisfying with all the expected sancharas of the raga materialising. Her concert experience both as a main artiste and as an accompanist has helped her go a long way with knowing the nuances and delicacies of the raga. Tyagaraja's 'Enduku Paddala' by Tygaraja was the composition chosen. The kriti was presented in the right speed and the first line of charana 'Veda Shastra tatvArthamu' chosen for neraval was explained again prior to the part. The sisters created space for taniyavartanam after a spell of vibrant korvai in their kalpana swara segment. Taniyavartanam by Delhi Sairam and Krishna witnessed an enjoyable exchange of rhythmic syllables.

The post-tani part too was interesting. Each composition that the sisters presented in this part was seriously sung with no compromise and every one of these compositions was enjoyed by the audience and kept them glued to their seats even after 10 pm.

Devaranama 'Barayaa Venkataramana' set to tune by the Hyderabad sisters was prefixed by a ugaboga 'Baliya Manege vAmana bandante' by Purandaradasaru in ragamalika in ragas Hamsanandi, Hameer Kalyani & Lalith. 'Tungateera virajam' by kamalesha Vitthala Dasaru, 'Ranga BAro panduranga bAro' in Sindhubhairavi by Purandaradasaru and 'Nambi kettavarevarayya' were concluding compositions of the concert.

Students puzzled over 'Out of Syllabus' CET questions

Mysuru, Apr. 20 (VNS)- The recently concluded Karnataka Common Entrance Test (KCET) has turned out to be a cause of worry for students who have alleged few questions in Physics, Chemistry and Biology papers being out of syllabus. Seeing their wards putting on a worried face, the parents have demanded a re-examination.

The students have alleged that almost 30-35 questions in eligibility tests conducted for admissions to professional courses being out of the prescribed National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT) syllabus.

Star of Mysore received calls from anxious students, parents and even grandparents, who complained about the questions being out of syllabus.

Speaking to SOM, Leela, a resident of Kuvempunagar, said that her grandson, who had attended the KCET, was worried about losing marks as some of the questions in the papers were not from the prescribed syllabus.

G. Yashas, a student of Sadvidya PU College, mentioned that out of the 60 questions, about 20 questions in Chemistry, 13-14 questions in Mathematics were out of the syllabus.

Some of the students also claimed that few questions in Biology paper were not from the prescribed NCERT text books.

"The Government has been playing with the future of the students by giving questions out of the syllabus. Despite similar incidents being reported in the past, the authorities have only turned a blind eye. Though the colleges are informed about few chapters being left out at the beginning of the academic years, the questions from the chapters being left out are appearing in the question papers," said Narayanaswamy, a resident of Hebbal, who also mentioned that awarding grace marks would definitely affect the future of the meritorious students.

Meanwhile, Karnataka Examination Authority (KEA) has invited objections from the students who had appeared for the KCET held on Apr. 18 and Apr. 19. In a press release, KEA Executive Director S. Ramya has said that the objections with valid reasons can be sent to KEA via e-mail: keaugcet24@gmail.com

While sending the objections, students must indicate the Subject, Version Code and Question Number. Last date to submit the objections is Apr. 27 before 5.30 pm.
